1. From the Member Secretary, State Planning Commission, Chennai letter No. 860/SPC (PC)/ 2015, dated 29.06.2015
2. From the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests letter No. J1/27508/2014, dated 12.05.2015 and 17.06.2015.

ORDER:

The Principal Chief Conservator of Forests has stated that the crocodile capture upon straying is a very tedious activity and is not standardized. The front line staffs are involved in this dangerous task joining hands with public. The captured crocodiles are released back to the Vakkairamari Lake nearby. Fulfilling these infrastructural facilities can help increase confidence among the public and with the district administration. The process of capture and relocation needs standardization as it is largely subjected to risk. Basic infrastructure is essential to prevent capture myopathy to the crocodiles and providing basic treatment to them. Further, it is essential to have special vehicle fabricated for the purpose to relocate the captured animal. The transition camp is proposed to be established at Neyveli. It involves the following item of works and proposed for implementation, during 2015-16.

Sl. No.	Item of work	Cost involved (Rs. in lakhs)
1.	Enclosure	10.00
2.	Safety Capture kits	2.00
3.	Specially tailored vehicle	8.00
	Total	20.00

2. The State Planning Commission has recommended the above proposal subject to excluding the expenditure towards construction of Administrative unit.

3. The Government after careful consideration accepts the proposal of the Principal Chief Conservator of Forests and accord sanction a sum of Rs.20.00 lakhs (Rupees Twenty lakhs only) for establishing the Crocodile Transition Camp at Neyveli under State Innovation Fund for implementation of the project during the year 2015-2016. The existing building has to be utilized for the above said project.
